Region 10 – Northwest/Alaska Region

Alan Trunnell, CDBG Coordinator, Beaverton, OR

NCDA is governed by a 42-member Board that consists of local government community development leaders from across the country. The new Board members were selected based on their leadership and participation in NCDA and geographic diversity. “I welcome the new Board members and thank all who currently serve on the Board. Serving on the Board requires dedication and a commitment to NCDA and its members. We are extremely grateful for the service and talents the new Board members bring to strengthening the Association,” said Vicki Watson, NCDA’s Executive Director.

Board members assist in advancing NCDA’s initiatives by serving on subcommittees and aiding in the implementation of the Association’s strategic plan

NCDA

NCDA is a non-partisan, national non-profit membership-based organization that represents local government departments across the country that administer federally-supported community and economic development and affordable housing programs. NCDA is an association of people committed to assist local governments to achieve high quality, locally-responsive programs for making communities better places in which to live and work, particularly for low- and moderate-income people.
